Simple Character Introduction 3

Aureolus Izzard

Until a few years ago, he acted as something like Indekchv's teacher.
His love for Indekchv headed in the wrong direction after they parted ways and he started collecting index goods.
(Stiyl calls him a "Curio Dealer.")

Aleister

He is the head of Academy City's board of directors, so he is the most powerful person in Academy City.
Sticking Stiyl with terrible jobs as he searches Academy City for the magic side and making Kanzaki work as a dorm manager in exchange for allowing Indekchv to stay in the city are all his doing.

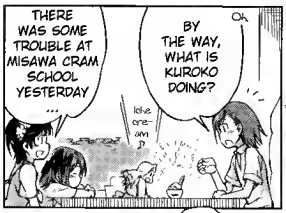
Himegami [redacted]

She possesses some kind of unknown power called Deep Whatever.
She says it has something to do with vampires.
but she is mostly treated as a fake because no vampires ever show up.
Currently, her given name is unknown (because no one will let her say it)



THERE WAS SOME TROUBLE AT MISAWA CRAM SCHOOL YESTERDAY...

The End

Afterword

sorry it took so long to finish this...orz
(※There were tons of reasons, but I won't get into them here.)

And here we are at the second volume of "Index/Orin", which came about from a quick idea like a bursting firework that I then mistakenly actually made.

For making a parody of volume 2, the bloody depictions in the Misawa Cram School section were a bit of a problem, but I got past that by forcibly cramming those parts into a corner...

(※But without doing that, the Railgun characters like Uiharu and Saten probably would not have shown up at all, so I guess at least we got something from that loss.)

By the way, there was turmoil related to the Misawa Cram School from volume 2, but I stuck that into the background in the Akemas. Uiharu's dialogue is probably the easiest to see that in.)

There are some things I wish I could change (especially how late the release was) and a lot of things I wish I could have put in, but perhaps some other time.

Respectfully yours.
